Job Title: Tax Assistant - Modern Apprenticeship

Contract: 2 years Fixed Term

Salary: £192 per week

Employer:

Baker Tilly is an independent firm of chartered accountants and business advisers and is one of the three principal mid-market accountancy firms, with almost 3,500 partners and staff generating a fee income of over £300 million. We are a national firm with a network of offices across the UK, making us your local firm with national strength.

Work Environment:

You will be based in our city centre office.

What might a day in this job look like?

At Baker Tilly, we have the experience and know-how to provide proactive, integrated answers for all forms of tax in the UK and overseas. It'll be your job to provide innovative tax solutions, through well thought-out plans and sophisticated problem-solving.

Tax is split into two main areas:

Firstly, tax compliance involves submitting tax returns for both individuals and companies.

Then there’s tax advisory and planning, which involves analysing and recommending changes to the way that individuals and companies structure their finances and tax payments.

So, believe us when we say that no two days will ever be the same. One day you could be looking after an individual’s tax needs; the next, you’re working with a major multinational company. From one-off high value transactions to long-term solutions, variety and early responsibility come with the territory at Baker Tilly.

Apprentices will become involved in client work very quickly, initially working as part of a larger team and gaining experience in a number of areas. The depth of services and clients you will be exposed to early in your career will provide you with a jump start into the varied world of taxation.

What will I Learn?

As a Tax apprentice you will complete the ATT qualification (Association of Taxation Technicians, leading to CTA, Chartered Tax Advisor qualification) at Level 4. The completion of the ATT qualification will be completed at a training centre or via the Online Classroom Live platform, in addition to at the workplace. Apprenticeships will include the QCF (Qualification and Credit framework), Technical Certificate Employments rights and responsibilities workbook and Functional skills (if required).

What Qualifications / Qualities are required?

To apply, you must have a minimum of 280 UCAS points or equivalent from your top 3 grades. In addition you must have a minimum of 5 National 5s or equivalent at grades A – C including at least grade B in Maths and English.
It's also about having passion, energy, enthusiasm and a head full of ideas. It’s being able to work successfully with colleagues and clients. We like people to have a mind of their own. After all, it's what makes teamwork exciting and what makes us the firm we are today.

Job Title: Accounting and Business Advisory Assistant - Modern Apprenticeship

Contract: 2 years Fixed Term

Salary: £192 per week

Employer:

Baker Tilly is an independent firm of chartered accountants and business advisers and is one of the three principal mid-market accountancy firms, with almost 3,500 partners and staff generating a fee income of over £300 million. We are a national firm with a network of offices across the UK, making us your local firm with national strength.

Work Environment:

You will be based in our city centre office.

What might a day in this job look like?

At Baker Tilly we provide a spectrum of Accounts and Business Advisory services to help businesses with the routines and responsibilities of running a company, managing a business and its money. The Accounts and Business Advisory team provide advice on a daily basis to their clients on matters such as management accounting, payroll, financial reporting, employee ownership and accounts preparation. We can take-on and manage these aspects of the business – and more – for our clients, allowing them the time to do what they do best. We pride ourselves on providing reliable and responsible business-support services to help our clients’ businesses succeed.

Apprentices will become involved in client work very quickly, initially working as part of a larger team and gaining experience in a number of areas. The depth of services and clients you will be exposed to early in your career will provide you with a jump start into the varied world of accountancy.

What will I Learn?

While gaining real hands on experience, your development in the role will be optimised by training from the company’s highly regarded dedicated team. As well as internal training and on-the-job mentoring, you will have the opportunity to train towards the AAT qualification, with support provided post-qualification ensuring you are well equipped to enjoy a successful and satisfying career with the business.

The AAT (Association of Accounting Technicians) and ATT (Association of Taxation Technicians) offer an entry level qualification which opens the door to a rewarding career in accountancy or tax. These qualifications are aimed at school leavers and offer an exciting alternative to university.

What Qualifications / Qualities are required?

To apply, you must have a minimum of 280 UCAS points or equivalent from your top 3 grades. In addition you must have a minimum of 5 National 5s or equivalent at grades A – C including at least grade B in Maths and English.

If you enjoy working as part of a team, can communicate clearly, are curious about how businesses work and are comfortable with numbers (although being a maths genius is not necessary) this could be just right for you.

Job Title: Royal Electrical & Mechanical Engineers (REME) - Job and Apprenticeship Opportunities

Contract: Permanent

Salary: £14,636 increasing to £18,500 after training

Employer: The British Army

The Army uses a huge range of vehicles and equipment and the Royal Electrical & Mechanical Engineers (REME) are the people that keep everything in perfect working order. The REME inspect, repair and adapt all our machineries, so they are always ready for action. There are Mechanics, Metalsmiths and Electricians all working within REME and other less well known roles, such as Shipwright, Technical Support Specialist, Electronics Technician and Aircraft Technician. Whichever role appeals to you, we will provide specialist training in your particular trade.

Work Environment:

Most Army units have their own REME team and you can move from one unit to another, such as an aircraft unit to infantry. This opens up all kinds of opportunities for you in different locations, working with a variety of equipment. You will meet people from different backgrounds, make new friends and work all over the world. However, much depends on your role and the skills that each unit needs.

What might a day in this job look like?

After your basic training of how to be a soldier, survive outdoors and handle weapons, you will continue your training at Lyneham Military of Defence College of Electrical and Mechanical Engineering in Wiltshire. Over the next 12/51/63 weeks you will learn to service, fix, inspect and adapt a huge range of equipment and how to drive depending on your chosen career area.

A typical day will depend on your specific role:

- Electrical Technician REME Regular Soldier - you will be fixing failed electrical systems. You will work on all kinds of equipment including vehicles, weapons, communication systems, medical and dental equipment. It is an opportunity to work with the latest technology and to gain experience in everything from Lasers to Thermal Imaging systems. In combat, the Army relies on its electronic systems and you will be required to go wherever you are needed.

- Metalsmith REME Regular Soldier – you will use various welding equipment to fix everything from tanks to generators. You will be trained as a highly skilled welder, sheet metal worker and blacksmith, and can specialise in areas such as in ship and boat repair. As a welding expert, you will support your unit by working from technical plans and engineering drawings in challenging working conditions.

- Recovery Mechanic REME Regular Soldier – your role will involve a lot of bravery and know-how, to recover vehicles. You will learn how to recover broken down, abandoned and overturned vehicles – from land rovers to trucks and tanks. Powerful winch equipment and cranes help get the job done.

- Technical Support/Technical Stores Specialist REME Regular Soldier – You will be trained to do two important roles in one. You will be responsible for securing, shipping and stock profiling a wide range of equipment, keeping track of our vast range of equipment. The other aspect of this role is to teach new Army officers and soldiers the latest military skills, coaching and helping them to be the best.
What will I Learn?

After your basic training to become a soldier, you can continue learning to obtain all kinds of qualifications and practical skills recognised beyond the Army. This includes apprenticeships, City & Guilds, working with cutting-edge technology systems and maybe supersonic car pioneering project. The Army can help you gain a range of qualifications and experience. Depending on your role you can obtain:

- Advanced Apprenticeship in Engineering Manufacture
- Level 2 Intermediate Apprenticeship in Engineering Maintenance
- Level 2 Intermediate Apprenticeship in Engineering Technical Support
- Level 3 Advanced Apprenticeship in Engineering Technical Support
- Level 3 Advanced Apprenticeship in Engineering Maintenance
- Level 3 Diploma in Engineering Technology
- NVQ Level 2 Storage and Warehousing
- Store Accounting Procedures Part 1
- Store Accounting Procedures Part 2
- Bachelor of Science Degree in Electronic Systems Engineering
- Qualifications at different levels in Leadership and Management and learn how to:

- service the Army's various equipment
- work with different metals and alloys working from technical plans and engineering drawings
- store and pack equipment and also give basic military training to new Army recruits
- study accounting procedures
- drive categories B, C and E vehicles
- recover vehicles using cranes and lifting gear, cut metals and drive tracked vehicles.

We will be behind you every step of the way as you work hard, move up the ranks and obtain qualifications that are recognised by civilian employers. The skills you learn can set you up for a great career both within and outside the Army.

What Qualifications / Qualities are required?

The Army is looking for a motivated individual who has a strong interest in fixing things, likes hands on experience and would like a career as skilled soldier. In addition you should have:

- at least three National 4s or equivalent in Maths, English and a science subject or equivalent
- at least two National 4s in Maths and English or equivalent (Technical Support/Technical Stores Specialist role)
- fitness and physical ability
- ability to deal with colleagues in a professional manner
- strong attention to detail
- excellent communication skills
- a willingness to help colleagues to achieve goals
- an enquiring mind.
- good hand-eye coordination, even under pressure and don’t mind getting messy/ dirty.

Job Title: Royal Engineers - Job and Apprenticeship Opportunities

Contract: Permanent

Salary: £14,636 increasing to £18,500 after training

Employer: The British Army

The Royal Engineers is for you if you want to be a highly skilled soldier. It offers 18 different trades, ranging from Surveyors and Bricklayers to Armoured Engineers and Design Draughtsman. Royal Engineers can also be Commando and Parachute-trained, which means they wear the green or maroon beret. Whatever role appeals to you, you will get outstanding training and the chance to gain qualifications that are recognised in the civilian world.

Work Environment:

On the battlefield, these multi-skilled soldiers (sappers) will support the rest of the Army. Behind the front line, they’re just as vital, and can be found constructing camps or even building airfields. After a conflict, they often help local people get back on their feet, setting up water and electricity supplies, clearing roads and supporting hospitals. When not out on operations, the Royal Engineers are an incredibly active gang who love sports and adventurous training. They compete in many sports and the team spirit is a big thing. You will be encouraged to participate at any level you want.

What might a day in this job look like?

- You will start with basic soldier training (23 weeks at Harrogate for 16 - 17 year olds and 14 weeks at Pirbright or Winchester for over 17s), then nine weeks at the Royal School of Military Engineering Regiment in Camberley learning about demolition and bridge buildings etc, and finish up with 27 or 41 weeks’ technical training at the Royal School of Military Engineering in Chatham, depending on your chosen career area.

A typical day will depend on your specific role:

- Design Draughtsman – Royal Engineers (Regular Soldier) - As a Design Draughtsman in the Army, you never know what you will be building next. You are the person who creates the plans that our teams have to follow. Building and demolition are a big part of the Army’s work in the UK and abroad on operations. You will use your skills to produce blueprints for buildings, roads, bridges and temporary airports. Your talents will be needed all over the world. That is why we train you to the highest standard, plus the offer of an opportunity to obtain all kinds of trade qualifications.

- Survey Engineer – Royal Engineers (Regular Soldier) - We have all kinds of building projects such as new bases, runways and more. Job Title: Audit Programme

Contract: A 5 year training programme followed by a permanent job

Salary: Up to £21,000

Employer:

KPMG in the UK is a leading provider of professional services including audit, tax and advisory. We have over 10,000 partners and staff working in 22 offices and are part of a strong global network of member firms. Our vision is simple - to turn knowledge into value for the benefit of our clients, people and our capital markets. Our innovative spirit inspires what we do and how we do it, providing valuable benefits for clients, employees and stakeholders. Constantly striving to be better lies at the heart of what makes us different.

Work Environment:

Our Edinburgh office is close knit and friendly with a strong team ethos and the size of our office means you’ll get to know everyone in your department in no time. Everyone pulls together here to make sure deadlines and timetables are met, helping you to never feel out of your depth. You’ll also enjoy the opportunity to work in a variety of different teams and with a wide range of clients - both large and small.

What might a day in this job look like?

Every so often, businesses need reassurance about their performance and reliability. So an audit is a bit like when a car goes in for an MOT. But at KPMG, we go way beyond the simple nuts and bolts of financial statements. We like to get right to the heart of an organisation, getting to grips with the inner workings of the business so we can spot any problems before they happen.

For you, the best part is that audit is something that affects all businesses. Which means you’ll have the opportunity to experience life across a variety of industries. You’ll get to meet lots of interesting people and develop skills that are always in demand. Plus, you’ll have access to senior business people from all kinds of different sectors.

In general terms you will:

- be assigned audit work, both a mixture of substantive and controls, over non-significant audit areas and assist more senior members of the team in the audit of significant audit areas. Examples of non-significant audit areas could include the audit of cash, fixed asset additions and disposals and the verification to underlying records and checking of mathematical accuracy of company financial statements
- proactively look to become an integral part of the audit team, create good contacts and develop relationships with the members of our clients finance teams
- be part of the department and attend social and networking events in order to develop your relationships and wider knowledge of both audit and a Big 4 environment

What will I Learn?

We believe that our School and College Leaver Programme is a compelling alternative to pursuing the traditional university route. We’ve developed an innovative five year programme that offers the opportunity to get a job in our audit team, obtain an accounting degree at the University of Birmingham and become a fully qualified Chartered Accountant with the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Scotland (ICAS).
During the degree phase of your programme in the first four years, you’ll split your time between university and working in your designated office. For more information go to https://www.kpmgcareers.co.uk/school-leavers/school-leaver-programme.

What Qualifications / Qualities are required?

Salary: £6.70 - £7.00 per hour

Employer:
Car Auction, Newbridge, EH28 8NB.

Work Environment:
You will be part of a small personal office working closely with colleagues. This is a fast moving business environment and you must have the energy and enthusiasm to meet the business needs.

What might a day in this job look like?

Duties may include:

- monitoring and ensuring all vehicle information input is accurate and that registration and lot numbers match
- ensuring that all sale day processing is conducted in line with company procedures
- taking payments in the counter area to ensure that vehicles purchased are correctly processed
- providing an excellent face-to-face front of house and telephone service to customers
- ensuring all relevant paperwork is correctly sorted and distributed at end of sale
- actioning any issues, queries or complaints arising so that any problems are resolved, in a timely fashion, to all parties’ satisfaction as far as is reasonably practicable. Escalate any complex issues to the relevant manager
- undertaking cross-functional tasks within the business administration department as necessary to meet operational requirements
- undertaking ad-hoc tasks as necessary to meet the business needs and for your own personal development.

What will I Learn?

You will undertake an SVQ Level 3 in Business Administration.

What Qualifications / Qualities are required?

We are looking for a candidate with good levels of numeracy, literacy, word processing, spreadsheets and e-mail systems.

Some administration experience desirable.

This position requires a high degree of attention to detail and accuracy in:

Salary: Competitive

Employer:

Kames Capital is a specialist investment management business. From Edinburgh and London we manage £58 billion on behalf of UK and international clients including wealth managers, financial advisers, family offices, pension funds, financial institutions, government agencies and individuals. We have investment capabilities in Fixed Income, Equities, Property and Multi-asset. Investment management is all we do, so we have no competing priorities or distractions. We aim to deliver superior investment performance with an appropriate level of risk. We seek to build trusting relationships by providing industry-leading levels of service.

Work Environment:

The role is based in our Edinburgh office.

What might a day in this job look like?

The purpose of the role is to provide administrative support to the Kames Operations, Change Management and IT Teams.

Key Responsibilities:

- Diary Management – support the Operations team administrator to organise and maintain diaries, schedule regular meetings and liaise with Kames reception for catering when applicable
- Travel – assist in the booking of travel and accommodation arrangements for Operations, Change Management, IT and Contractors administering tickets and reservations. Assist colleagues across other AAM locations with hotel bookings. Follow corporate policy to promote cost savings
- Preparation of meeting papers – collating, producing and distributing meeting papers within agreed timescales
- Invoices – support in the production of invoices for Operations and Change Management
- Expenses – assist in the preparation of expenses to meet deadlines
- Stationery - maintain the stock levels of stationery following corporate policy to promote cost savings
- Archiving - arrange all off-site archiving when required ensuring records are kept up to date
- Filing - manage and control the filing system
- Mail – distribute mail and liaise with Property for courier services
- Procedures – keep procedures up to date with any changes and look for ways to deliver a more cost effective service.

In addition to the duties and responsibilities listed, the job holder may be required to perform other duties assigned by his/her manager from time to time so long as such duties are within the scope and ability of the job holder.

What will I Learn?

This is an excellent opportunity for a school leaver to gain an introduction to the Asset Management Industry. The role is part of Kames Capital’s Investment 2020 programme which was created to make the industry more accessible to school leavers. The successful candidate will gain first hand insight into the industry while making a real contribution to the success of the business.

The Investment 2020 Training Programme includes:
• Induction training
• A programme of events throughout your contract at one of the member firm’s offices
• Opportunity to start a foundation qualification with the Chartered Institute of Securities and Investment (CISI)
• Regular feedback from your HR and/or line manager
• Access to Investment 2020 online resources including training and careers information.

More information on Investment 2020 can be found at http://www.investment2020.org.uk/.

We recognise that any new employee needs support and training opportunities to thrive. From the moment you join Kames Capital, your continuing professional development will be a fundamental part of your role.

What Qualifications / Qualities are required?

We are looking for National 5s or equivalent and ideally a minimum of 3 Highers.

Qualities:

- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills are required and a keen ability to learn and the ability to work as part of a team.
- Confident, self-assured, assertive and friendly.
- Adaptable and achievement orientated.
- High level of competence of appropriate word processing and presentation software - Word, Excel and PowerPoint.

Excellent academic qualifications are desirable; however we are looking for individuals who demonstrate a strong desire to learn and the ability to work as part of a team in a fast paced environment. They must be driven to succeed and add real value in their role with excellent communication and interpersonal skills. We are looking for individuals who genuinely want to make the most out of their time in a leading Financial Services Company and have a resourceful and ‘can do’ attitude.

Job Title: Advanced Engineering Apprenticeship

Contract: Permanent

Salary: £11,543 - £18,364 dependent on age

Employer:

Royal Mail is the UK’s designated Universal Postal Service provider, supporting customers, businesses and communities around the country. We are the only company delivering a ‘one-price-goes-anywhere’, six days a week service to more than 29 million addresses across the UK. General Logistics Systems (GLS), our European parcels business, operates one of the largest parcel delivery networks in Europe.

Work Environment:

We work with the most advanced technology to help us sort and deliver millions of items all through the week. To maintain and develop that technology, and come up with new ways to improve the sorting process, we have a large and dedicated team of engineers – around 1,000 in all. Most of them are based in mail centres and offices across the country.

What might a day in this job look like?

At our mail centres and offices, we sort, on average, 58 million items each day. On any given night, our biggest warehouse alone can see 60% of the country’s post pass through. Getting each one of those items where it needs to be is a huge logistical challenge, the scope and complexity of which involves using some amazing technology.

Rotating through a series of placements – in your own mail centre and further afield – will give you the chance to get to grips with a wide range of technology and engineering tools. You could have a big part to play in developing and rolling out the cutting-edge postal technology we need to deliver a truly world-class mail service – everything from high-tech robotics and intelligent sorting machines to automated reading technology.

What will I Learn?

Based at one of our mail centres, you’ll gain plenty of hands-on engineering experience, but in the first year, you’ll also spend 30 weeks away on a residential training course, based in Blackburn. While you’re there, you’ll work towards a Level 2 Diploma in Engineering Operations, a BTEC Diploma in Operations and Maintenance, and complete an IOSH Working Safely course.

One of the biggest benefits of this first year is the chance to spend time with other Royal Mail apprentices from across the country. For those who have never lived away from home, it’s an opportunity to develop those all-important life skills, boost your confidence and start building relationships that will all contribute to a bright future ahead.

In years two and three you will complete a NVQ Level 3 in Engineering Operations.

What Qualifications / Qualities are required?

We are looking for at least five National 5s including Maths, English and a science subject, at grade C or above.

But every bit as important as your academic achievements will be the personal qualities, level of commitment and enthusiasm you bring. An analytical brain, a good head for figures and great problem-solving skills are all essential. A personal interest in technology, computers and engineering is too. You must be comfortable working on your own or as part of a team. But above all, you’ve got to be eager to learn.
Closing Date:

Thursday 17 December.

Job Title: Business Administrator – Modern Apprenticeship

Contract: 12 week work placement on Employability Fund training allowance of £55 per week plus travel expenses. Successful applicants will secure a job and progress to a Modern Apprenticeship.

Salary: National Minimum Wage will be paid for the Modern Apprenticeship.

Employer:
A reputable employer based in Edinburgh.

Work Environment:
You will be based within a small and effective team in a professional and welcoming environment. You will be given tasks daily – some to be carried out regularly, some dictated as business demands.

What might a day in this job look like?
Your job is to ensure all administration is carried out quickly, efficiently and accurately to meet agreed deadlines. This is a fast moving friendly busy office environment, sometimes meaning planned tasks need to be re-prioritised. Other duties will include:

- meet and greet visitors.
- be involved in updating website and social media messages
- file and maintain records in line with company requirements.

What will I Learn?
You will work towards an SVQ 3 in Business Administration. You will learn how to be an effective member of the team working in a small but busy administration role.

What Qualifications / Qualities are required?
This employer is looking for someone with the following qualities:

- organised and methodical as well as enthusiastic, friendly and polite
- a good communicator (both verbal and written)
- comfortable with different IT packages ie Word, Excel, Outlook, social media etc
- confident when meeting and talking to new people (both face to face and over the phone)
- enjoy working to clearly set tasks and deadlines
- a good team player.

Job Title: Playworker - Modern Apprenticeship

Contract: 12 week work placement on Employability Fund Training Allowance of £55 per week plus travel expenses. Successful applicants will secure a job and progress to a Modern Apprenticeship.

Salary: National Minimum Wage will be paid for the Modern Apprenticeship.

Employer:
A reputable “After School Club” employer with venues across the city.

Work Environment:
You will provide a fun and safe environment for children. You will work as part of a dedicated team to provide first class support and supervision to children in Primary 1 – 7. This involves indoor and outdoor working as well as outings and trips during holiday periods.

What might a day in this job look like?
This is a fast moving and varied environment. Duties will include:

- offer a warm welcome to all children and visitors
- assist your team in the planning, set up and delivery of activities
- observe and participate in activities inspired by the children
- prepare snacks for children.

What will I Learn?
You will work towards the Pre Employability Certificate of Work Readiness (SQA) during your 12 week work placement then progress to SVQ2/3 in Playwork. You will learn how to be an effective member of the team working in an After School Club environment.

What Qualifications / Qualities are required?
This employer is looking for someone who genuinely wants to work with children and is enthusiastic, friendly and polite. You must be a good communicator and enjoy practical tasks and activities and enjoy “being involved”.
